

January 11, 2000

7:20pm - Call comes into 911 reporting accident on 27 South

7:20pm - Ambulance dispatched from Floyd Medical Center

7:22pm - Police arrive at the accident scene

7:26pm - Ambulance arrives on the accident scene

According to statement given to Inv. Mike Key, Rome City Police, by Joey Watkins:

Watkins stated he was fishing in Alabama all day on January 11 and January 12, 2000.

6:30 - 6:45pm - Watkins stated he left Alabama.

6:45 - 7:00pm - Watkins stated he got home around this time.

7:00pm - Watkins stated his girlfriend in Cedartown. He also stated his parents came home around this time.

7:15pm - Watkins stated his girlfriend called him back at his house. He stated Tim Hughes answered the phone.

7:20pm - Watkins stated he left his house at this time to go to his girlfriend's house in Cedartown.

7:21pm - Watkins stated that he called his sister, Tandy Watkins, and told her that Isaac was wrecked on the side of the road. Watkins told her to call Isaac's sister and tell her this. Tandy refused. He also told Tandy that the police were directing traffic at the scene. *(police didn't arrive until one minute later)
Watkins also stated that the ambulance passed him just past Blackwood's.

According to cell phone records of Joey Watkins:

7:15pm - Watkins calls his girlfriend at her residence in Cedartown (770-748-1209). This call is transmitted from the Kingston Tower on Bidy Road.

7:21pm - Watkins calls his residence (706-234-6596). This call lasted 43 seconds. It was transmitted from the Rome Tower on Mt. Alto Road.

7:22pm - Watkins calls his grandmother's residence (706-777-8725). This call lasted 1 minute and 14 seconds. It was transmitted from the Rome Tower on Mt. Alto Road.

7:23pm - Watkins calls the Pitt Stop in Alabama (256-422-3787). This call lasted 25 seconds. It was transmitted from the Turner McCall tower located on East 12th Street.

7:27pm - Watkins called his residence again (706-234-6596). This call was transmitted from the Turner McCall tower on East 12th Street.

7:35pm - Watkins called his girlfriend at her residence again (770-748-1209). This call was transmitted from the Cedartown City tower located on Collard Valley Road.

Cell phone records also indicate that Joey Watkins cell phone was used during the day and calls were transmitted from local cell phone towers.