

August 18, 2000

To: Isaac Dawkins File

From: Jim Free JF

770-748-7793

On this date I interviewed Aislinn Hogue, James Hogue and Sharon Hogue. The interview took place in the Kroger parking lot in Cedartown. Aislinn Hogue is the daughter of James and Sharon Hogue and they live in western Polk County at [REDACTED] Branch Road.

Aislinn told me that she started going with Joey Watkins about 11 months ago and at first he was very charming but she now describes him as a physico. She said that she had recently broke up with him because he had become very possessive. Aislinn said that since she broke up with Joey he has been following her and threatening her friends. She said that she had Jason Cheatwood in the car with her and Joey pulled around several cars and pulled up beside her. He told me to get out of the car and he jerked his shirt off like he wanted to fight Jason. She managed to get around him and headed for the Kroger parking lot where some of her friends were parked and she asked Bradley Miller to block Joey so she could get away. She drove to Ronnie Worthington's house (her cousin) at 381 Booger Hollow Road. Ronnie then drove her car to Aislinn's house and she road with Robin Worthington's car. Ronnie Worthington said that he met Joey on the Piedmont Highway and Joey turned around thinking is was Aislinn. Ronnie said Joey ran up behind the car and was blowing the horn and flashing his lights.

When Ronnie Worthington and his daughter Robin left the Hogue house they called back and said that Joey was parked at the end of the road. A few minutes later Joey came to the house. Mr. Hogue was waiting on him and he told him not to come to the house again and not to call his daughter again.. They exchanged words and Mr. Hogue choked Joey down. He said another boy named Shane got out of the car with a beer bottle and he put him back in the car. Mr. Hogue said that Joey was screaming don't hurt me but when he let Joey go he drove down the road and stopped and yelled "fuck you".

Mr. Hogue said that the day Isaac was killed Joey was real hyper and nervous. He told Aislinn that he called his sister and told her Isaac had a wreck. Mrs Hogue said that after Isaac was killed Joey started having trouble with is stomach.

Aislinn said that on August 7, 2000 Joey told her that Paul (LNU) had told him the he had Killed Isaac and that he would kill again. Joey told her that Paul had been one of his best friends and that Paul hated Isaac because of trouble they had when Paul got Samantha pregnant.

The Hogues are concerned about their daughter Gwinn who is a teacher at Rome High and lives in Eastwood apartments on East Second Ave. They said that Gwinn had always seen through Joey and had put him down on several occasions. I called Trixie Morgan at Rome High and asked her to keep a check on Gwen and to have her call me. So far I have not heard from her. The Hogues are going to search their memory for statements that Joey has made about Isaac death. They said that he was always trying to blame it on someone else.

---